

Millennium HealthCare Inc. Featured in Forbes

GARDEN CITY, N.Y., Aug. 14, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Millennium HealthCare Inc. (OTC Pink: MHCC) announced today that it was featured in an article by Gene Marcial in Forbes, titled "Obamacare Focuses On Prevention And Wellness By Spending More On Medical Tests". The full article can be accessed on Forbes' website at:

<http://www.forbes.com/sites/genemarcial/2013/08/09/obamacare-focuses-on-prevention-and-wellness-by-spending-more-on-medical-tests/?partner=yahootix>

Highlights of the article include:

- Discussion of the fact that preventative tests will be 100 percent reimbursed under the new Affordable Care Act (Obamacare)
- Discussion that Millennium HealthCare is one such company positioned for the new Act, as it has licensed and distributes preventative tests to primary care physician offices
- Discussion of two of the major tests Millennium is currently marketing including Vasoscan, which measures a biomarker that assesses elasticity in the blood vessels and the ForeCYTE Breast Health Test, a non-invasive test that identifies pre-cancerous cells in nipple aspirate fluid, which is manufactured by Atossa Genetics

About Millennium HealthCare Inc.

Millennium HealthCare Inc., through its wholly owned operating subsidiaries, provides effective purchase, supply and distribution of revolutionary medical equipment and devices, as well as innovative and effective medical practice support and services, strategically assisting cardiovascular specialists develop, grow and manage their medical practices.

Millennium's medical equipment and device group focuses on strategic alliances and partnerships with medical device companies that provide innovative and revolutionary medical devices that utilize cutting edge technology, are cost effective and FDA approved. Devices the Company elects to distribute are focused on preventative and diagnostic testing and care with the anticipation of detecting potential medical issues in their early stages yielding positive medical outcomes for patients. All of the products that the Company distributes have obtained necessary approvals and certifications and are reimbursable under current medical procedure billing codes.

SOURCE Millennium HealthCare Inc.